NOTES

1. Applications should be made as early as possible and in any case not less than one month before inspection is required.
2. A separate application must be submitted for each vehicle/trailer.
3. If there is a GV60 test certificate in existence which simply requires renewing, has not been laminated over and has photographs of the vehicle in its current livery and condition, no photographs are required. If it is a first test or otherwise does not qualify for the above, two "Polaroid" or similar colour photographs approximately 75mm (3") square should be provided of the vehicle in its current livery, one showing the front and one side of the vehicle and another showing the rear and the other side. These will be glued to the certificate and endorsed by the station as accurately portraying the vehicle. Digital photographs are acceptable provided they are of good resolution and are printed on proper photograph paper.
4. The application should be forwarded to the Test Station for the area in which the vehicle is available for inspection. Postage must be prepaid.
5. The appropriate remittance (see current scale of fees form), by crossed cheque made payable to VOSA, must accompany the application or you may quote your customer account number.
6. An unregistered vehicle may be tested, however, the Certificate of Approval will be withheld until the registration document is produced to confirm the registration mark.
7. If the trailer or semi-trailer does not bear a chassis number or an official permanent identification mark, application for one should be made to VOSA.
8. When the inspection is arranged to take place undercover facilities for the full examination of the vehicle (including roof, superstructure and underside) should be readily available.
9. Unless adequate notice is given, usually 3 days, that the vehicle will not be presented for inspection at the place and time appointed the fee paid will not be refunded.
10. When an applicant has neither proceeded with nor cancelled an application after 3 months from the date of receipt at a Test Station the application will be deemed to have been cancelled. The fee will be refunded less an administrative charge.
